Literary Notes From the Century.

Rudyard Kipling's new novel, written in collaboration with Wolcott Balsteier for The Century, is entitled "The Naulahla, a Tale of West and East." It is a story of America and India. The principal characters live 10 a "booming" Colorado town, where the story opens, but the scene quickly shifts to the court of an Indian maharajah, whither the hero and the heroine journey to meeet with most varied experiences. The story versaries and the fact that they will begin in the November Cen- are secret shows them to be pain- in every town in the United States. Special inducements. Address

No better preparation can be had than Ayer's Hair Vigor. All who use it speak of its mefits in the highest terms and place it, as a dressing, far beyond anything else of the kind. It imparts to the hair a beautiful silken lustre and a fine fragrance, prevents baldness, and restores gray hair to its original color and texture. "For five years I was troubled with a disease of the scalp, which caused the hair to become harsh and dry and to fall out in such large quantities as to threaten com-plete baldness.
